Sir

The kind[e] which you have pleased to doe me in remembring me of the answer of my former letter hath moved me to take this occasion to render you a world of thanks, intreating you also to oblidge me further in recommending this bearer to his highness for my brifvedt Colonells Cullock, he having made choise of him out of my Company, & whose father for many yeares hath formerly bin in favour to that same company, concerning that wrong which is offered in my regiment, I intreat you that ye will also be pleased to recommend my Noghes for the same, Gott if ye find not his highness inclyned that way I desire nevertheless that itt wold please his highness to bestow itt upon the brifvedt of the company so hoping, in regard of my obedience that you will pardon my freedom att this time, whom God shall strengthen me, I shalbe bound willing to acknowledge all your obligations, & ever labour to approove my self

Sir

Your most affectionat and humble servant

[illegible]

BRITISH MUSEUM

© British Library
Add Ms 18675, f. 19-20
http://resources.huygens.knaw.nl/briefwisselingconstantijnhuygens/brief/nr/n0506

© British Library
Add Ms 18675, f. 19-20
http://resources.huygens.knaw.nl/briefwisselingconstantijnhuygens/brief/nr/n0506

Den Mijn Heer

Mijn heer van Zuÿlichem eerst Secretarius

ende vrÿdesheer van

Sijn Hoogheit

Z