

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. The text is written on a piece of paper that is tilted and partially obscured by a dark surface. The handwriting is dense and difficult to read due to the angle and fading. Some legible words include 'Zeeuws', 'Rekenkamer', and 'Bemtent'. The text appears to be organized in columns, typical of a ledger.

Handwritten signature or stamp, possibly a date or a name, located at the bottom right of the document. It includes the number '112' and some illegible text.
