

N<sup>o</sup> 4.

Grave

Brieven vanden Coninc van Spaengien, roepende de fantschap der Stadt Grave ende lande van Cuyck, In -
Date den 7<sup>en</sup> May 1559.

3.

fol 647

Commissie van Caspiliën van Leon van Aragon, van Nuaxxe van Napels van Sicilien van Venetien

Handwritten Latin text, dense and illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.

De heer...
Laten...
Diner...
1776

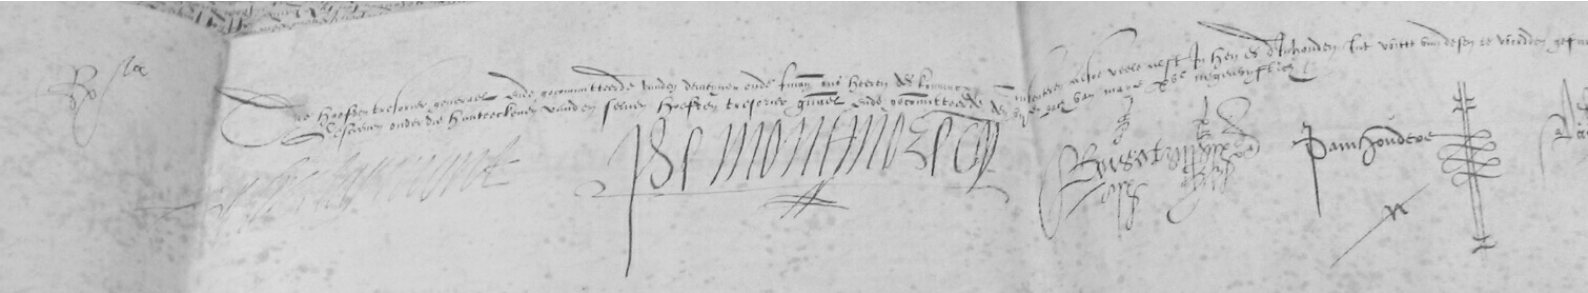

van Nassaxe van Napels van Sicilien van Neapelke van Saksen van Danen en land

Sochte voeten

Main body of the handwritten document, containing dense Dutch text in a historical script, likely a legal or administrative record.

Deen ingebonden brief is in open gabelt... Inder Cameren vanden Schenken onse heren... Ende alder gelyckste... In den jare... Ende naemende den... In den jare... Ende naemende den... In den jare... Ende naemende den...

Handwritten signature or name, possibly 'Jochijacob'.

Handwritten text in Dutch, likely a legal document or deed, featuring several signatures and names in cursive script. The text is written on aged, slightly stained paper. The names and signatures are: MANSPOR, Busstuyne, Pamjondse, Alf. A. J., and De Hantingne. There are also some illegible scribbles and a vertical line with a crossbar.