

A.D. 1575.

disbursed the same in prests to captains and soldiers for victual, the payment of freight, and other needful charges. Knows not the exact sums he has received and paid, but sends an estimate. Has been detained from looking into his charge committed to ministers who have not evenly respected the same. Hopes the Queen will not be induced to turn him out of his office after 15 years' service, and if he have not continuance is like to lose many debts and odd reckonings.—29 June 1575. Signed.

Add. Endd. P. 1.

193. Note of receipts amounting to 4,800*l.*, and payments amounting to 4,761*l.*

P. ½. Enclosure.

June 30. 194. JOHANNES LANDSCADT to STURMIUS.

Points out to him the advantages which a marriage between the Queen of England and one of the House of Austria would bring to the cause of religion, and desires his assistance in bringing it about.—Zweybruck, 30 June 1575. Signed.

Add. Ger. Pp. 7½.

195. Latin translation of the above.—Bipontium, 3 Cal. Jun. (sic). Endd. Pp. 6.

June. 196. The QUEEN to the PRINCE OF ORANGE.

It seems strange to her that he should in anyway attempt to excuse the robberies and outrages committed on her subjects by persons who aver his authority. Finds it still more strange that having made request by her letters she can obtain but little reparation, and hears every day new complaints of further outrages. If she cannot obtain satisfaction very soon she will be obliged herself to take steps for the safety of her subjects, as she has given charge to the bearer, Daniel Rogers, to tell him more fully.

Copy. Endd. : June 1575. Fr. P. ½.

[June.] 197. The REGENT OF SCOTLAND.

Things noted and misliked in the Regent chiefly in the matter of the coinage of silver, which he manages to his own particular advantage.

Endd. P. ½.

[July 1.] 198. INSTRUCTIONS for HENRY COBHAM.

He is to complain of the entertainment of Thomas Stuckley in the Court of Spain, and demand his dismissal, and to urge on the King to make peace with his subjects in the Low Countries, and to point out the danger of French interference.

Rough draft in Burghley's writing. Incomplete. Endd. Pp. 6.
