Handwritten text in a Gothic script, likely a legal document or contract. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly stained parchment. It begins with a large initial letter 'I' and continues with several lines of text, including phrases like 'Landt' and 'Went'. The script is dense and characteristic of the late medieval period.

Handwritten text on the right-hand page, continuing from the left page. It is written in the same Gothic script and appears to be a continuation of the legal document or contract. The text is partially obscured by the binding of the book.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a concluding clause. It is written in the same Gothic script and includes a large initial letter 'W'. The text is somewhat faded and less legible than the main body of the document.
