Capⁿ Theobalds hath made knowne unto me a purpose he hath to become a suitor to the Prince for leave to goe with me into Eng: to take the benefit of this springe to provide for his health by the Bath & other meanes wch this country soe well affords not, wherin he hyspe to enable himself to doe the State & his Ex^{ce} better service then he can nowe doe in the present infirmitie^s of his bodie. he did intend the same suite last year but finding the preparations extraordinary greate he thought fitt to forbear & defer his Ex^{ce} wills nowe pleased to give way unto his suite & that ye will afford him ys^e assistance in the recommendation wherof the best you may, wherin ys^m shall doe him a favour & make me beholding to ys^m And
