

S<sup>r</sup>

Presumings of your courteous disposition, I am to desire the kindness of you, to move his Ex<sup>ci</sup> for an act for two shippes extraordinary w<sup>ch</sup> favor it hath pleas'd his Ex<sup>ci</sup> heretofore to showe mee, and now stand more in need of a then ever, in regard of the inconvenience this waguer brings with it more then heretofore, and havinge maine to provide for, both for meate and drinke & other necessaries, besides provision for maine horses, more then ordinarie Coronells have, and nothinge but what I must send for; w<sup>ch</sup> maketh me bound to trouble you; For w<sup>ch</sup> courtesy I shall thinke myselfe beholdinge to you and will not be unthankfull, and soe I rest.

Your assured loving friend to serve you
