

Sr, the brayer of this m<sup>r</sup> marris, hath a business wth y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>m</sup> herein hee prayeth y<sup>e</sup> assistance, & doe praye wth him, in the request that hee makes to y<sup>e</sup>, that y<sup>e</sup> would give him y<sup>e</sup> best helpe, for the obtaininge from the primes that wth hee debys, & doe leave yt to him selfe to make knowne to y<sup>e</sup> what the business is the willingness that y<sup>e</sup> should doe to further me in those things that I have had to doe wth the primes gives me boldnes in this particuler to trouble y<sup>e</sup>, & that acknowledg the Contents y<sup>e</sup> doe me in this, as done to myselfe, when y<sup>e</sup> have a fyt opportunitye I pray y<sup>e</sup> to present my humblest services to the primes I doe trouble heere him, yt is an affliction to me that I am not able to doe him proportionate services, & that ever commend his noble undertakings to the God of heaves, so wth the commendation of my affectionate love and services to y<sup>e</sup> selfe, & rest and health be your most affectionate friend to be Comanded

Heck my this 4th of Feb. 1633

[Faint, illegible handwriting in a historical script, possibly Latin or Dutch, covering the upper half of the page.]

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

De onbegrijpbaare
Heer Constantijn Huygens Secretaris van Synne die in de stonde van vanquien s