Amplissime Dn. Collega et affinis clarissime.

Eleganti munusculo me ditasti, et tales quas olim reddiderim gratias, si sic omnium mearum ratio exigeret, meorum facultas [illegible] de Cylindricis [illegible] pridem theorice certior fui: praxin in speciali [illegible] arctius amplector, quod ad formam lucidissimae materiae [illegible] accessit: quod valde cupide scire cupiam an sectionibus Conicis, Parabolicis puta vel Ellipsi [illegible] applicari possit. De studijs meis et qui certi quidquam statuendo valeat. In studijs ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible] ~~quod~~ cuius culpâ male protrahantur, coram dicere malim, quam sic cominus indicare. De forma dicendi tui et mora dicendi etc. excusat te professionis causa ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ coram quovis Minoris nedum à clementissimo Principe agere fori metuas, quod publice tantum de foro non invitus. Si quo tamen patrocinio egere potest tam bona caussa: unde me ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible] fore ~~[illegible]~~ qui Eas partes [illegible] delegatas velim. et ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible] quod potes ac debes [illegible] [illegible] dato. Salutabo illi omnia aut in mortalibus, aut aeternam, pro [illegible] [illegible], ~~[illegible]~~ integerrimo affectu [illegible]. Ego te valere jubeo et me amare. Hag. Com. VI. Id. Mart. 1633.

Studiosissimus tui Collega
et affinis observantissimus

Ad Molinaei et Balzaci elogia, quod a Riveto [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Mathematicae [illegible] acceptum fero [illegible] [illegible] Cylindricis [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] forma [illegible]
