

Sir

My Lady Strange writes to me she cannot express the thankfulness she owes you for my one particular I can merit ~~nothing~~ nothing but I know you will accept a thankful heart. she hath let me know how much I am obliged to you in naming of me in yours so her so much to my advantage you will add to your former favours if at your best leisure you let her know of the receipt of this I now send you she ^{is} ~~is~~ ^{is} gos in a few days to Berlin she makes the more hast in hope change of ayre may be good to recover the Prince of Beffours who is still ~~dis-~~ troubled with the ague. I wil not ^{importune} you with a long discourse for I know how many better employments you have then ~~my~~ idel discourse. I had the hon nor this day to dine with the Princess of orange who tells me how glad she is to receive of your letters non breathing do wish more hartly the continuance of the prosperitie of that most Glorious Prince then I. who kis your hands and am ever yours yours humble affectionat servant

Lewenheer

10 of July 1639.

change of the

By-

of

u n-

my

of

else

ed

s ity

ite

then

uer

inat

ein

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, written vertically in cursive script.

