

1066 5r

pleas'd you to call some officers of my regiment, among which Captaine Williams is one if it will please you to do me as good as to let his signet be, that if it will please his signet to bestow the Company upon some of my my Company who is my nephew, and of command of my Company to a gentleman whose name is Mous his name is a lieutenant under my Lord de Mont his regiment, and is Sir a volunteer, I will for more speedily dispatch in respect the same need of officers, and also I expect for private order will recommend some way to me, when it may be his signet will not be well acceptible not willing to trouble you any more I will from the his morning

your most affectionate and humble servant

James Oglethorpe

Handwritten notes in a cursive script, possibly including the name "Willems" and other illegible characters.

