

D

Virorum illustriss.^{me}

Fdem utriq; nostrum video, maois in voto est, quam in spe. Ex aequo dolens jactam hanc alcām. Feramius. Tu vero leviter ac pro materia succenseas, quæso. Est quovis modo vir maonius. Quia miseratione dionius est, irasci, nec ut possis, volis. Numquid ipsum maois inenig fermentum quam fati calamitas exagitent; illis linquo, quibus animusne liber agat ac suis, an corporis intemperis submissus otium est disceptandi. Te certe laetessendi nec occasio, nec causa ulla fuit, nemum ius. Fonsce homini libro ac sc̄ribenti pro candore. Est infra iram tuam quodcumq; hoc scripti. In vicem habet pro tali. Polluet æruo; polluet similitatis male suffræsse, sui non potens livor. Male voluit Heinio nostro; non ambo: non tulit ei benevolos; accedo. Tuerantur se id sua qui introrse autemabunt, noluit te illi, quod bona fide facis, velle optima maxima; dum pessimi. At quo haec? Excusat a se potnas. Sat vindictæ, oculi quod dolcent. Ipse cum se defascit animus, sibi tormentum est.

Non invinere tyranni

Majus.

Ait haec mitto. Redeunt quorum partipem fecisti. Gratias immortales. Addidi mea qualiacunq; plura habeo adfecta at non ad manus. Probabunt se tibi si qua probari merentur et votum e' votandi auctor. Ut absolvam, haec vulcano. Pro amoribus nostris, sim qui semper.

Per illustri nomini vestro dicatusimus.

Si od. Grafswinckel.

in hand. The same as written above. must be sent with the rest of the goods. When you receive them. Please inform me. I have some time ago sent you a Circular letter in which I gave some general instructions. It is now time to repeat them again. Since the goods are sent by sea. it is difficult to know exactly when they will arrive. But as far as possible I desire that you will receive them before the 1st of July. This will give you sufficient time to make up the difference between what you have paid and what you will have to pay. And if you cannot receive them before the 1st of July. Please let me know. I will then make arrangements to have them sent by land. and will then give you more exact information about the time of arrival.
