

To the Castle of Stafford. and some to the Castle of Arundell. Printed
23. June 1544.

My Lord;

The paine y^e Lord^{sh} have bene pleas'd to command mee hath bene dispatched as soon as the Prince hath had notice of y^e Lord^{sh} desire, and saue I order ~~to~~ to assure y^e Lord^{sh} that in matters of more importance where his Highnes may have occasion to serve y^e it shall be performed wth the same affection ^{as may be} ~~as may be~~ ^{as shall be} ~~as shall be~~ the same readiness ~~as shall be~~ ^{in all shall} be executed by him who receiveth the honour of y^e Lord^{sh} commands for a most special favour, and as he is unfainedly

My Lord,

y^e Lord^{sh} most humble and obedient servant
J. B.