

I perceave it wilbe a uery difficult matter, if not impossible, to obtaine a meeting with the Persons you know of, though I have written uery earnestly to one of them, and see the other every day. I do therefore beseech you to give me leave to attend your selfe, only one halfe houre when your occasions will permit it, that I may demonstrate unto you the cleare & most probable grounds of this undertaking, that by your meanes His Highnes may be informed that He hath not bene entertained all this while with empty imaginations. I will promise you this fauour of yours shalbe no trouble to your selfe at all, and within lesse then halfe the time mencion'd I will euidently lay before yr eyes that the worke in hand, for the facility, glory, and profit of it, merits to be persued with more warmth & dilligence. Let this bearer bring word, when you wilbe willing to see
