

Nobiliss. et amplissime domine,

Offero tibi promissas pridem Commentationes meas ad Consuetudines Velavia. Quod autem citius easdem non transmiserim, absentia tua diuturnior in causa fuit, eo praesertim in loco quo huiusmodi leges inter arma continebant. Unice rogo, ut, quatenus gra-viora et publica negotia permiserint, lectone digneris quod in publicum usum imaginati sumus. Neque in minima felicitatis parte posuero, si de nostro hoc scripto tuum aliquando rescivero iudicium. Bene-vale Nob. et ampliss. dne. Praeproperè Noviomagi tert. kalend. Decembr. an. cl^o l^o c^o XLV. Julian.

Amplitud. tuae

addiciss.

Lamb. Goris

Handwritten circular stamp or seal, possibly containing a date or library reference.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Latin or Dutch, covering the upper half of the page.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a closing phrase.

Mijn heere

Mijn heere Constantin Huygens, heere van Zuilichem, Raet ende seecretaris van sijne Hooght de prince van Oranien

port

Hage
met een boek.

