

Sir.

I doe heere send you some more papers from Doctor Thomson which newly are come out of the press; and the rest you shall not faile of, as soon as ever they shall come to my hands, Doctor Thomson is your most humble servant and will come to kiss your hands before his going to Brida As for Miss Ogle I have put her in such a longing to see you and yours, especially to be acquainted with your new begotten one, that I beginne to suspect there may be some thing more in it then there is in much a doe about about nothing; Sr. yesterday we have bin in our deuotions with. Confitebor tibi Domine. xl.
 and. Domine Deus meus. and that in the presencie of one M<sup>r</sup>. Northget a great lover of musick and a verre good organist. who tells me has bin twice or thrice at your house in hopes to have presentit his humble seruice vnto you. and for want of other address has faile of that happines, hee is one of the Kings seruants.
 Clarke of the signet office, and one of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Heraults, and verre well knowne to M<sup>r</sup>. Cairns of whose arrivall we heere doe long to heare. and so to meet with that Harwinge, which heere I dare promise is in vs all, with one accord and voyce of being.

Sir.

Wright the 25 of March 1646.

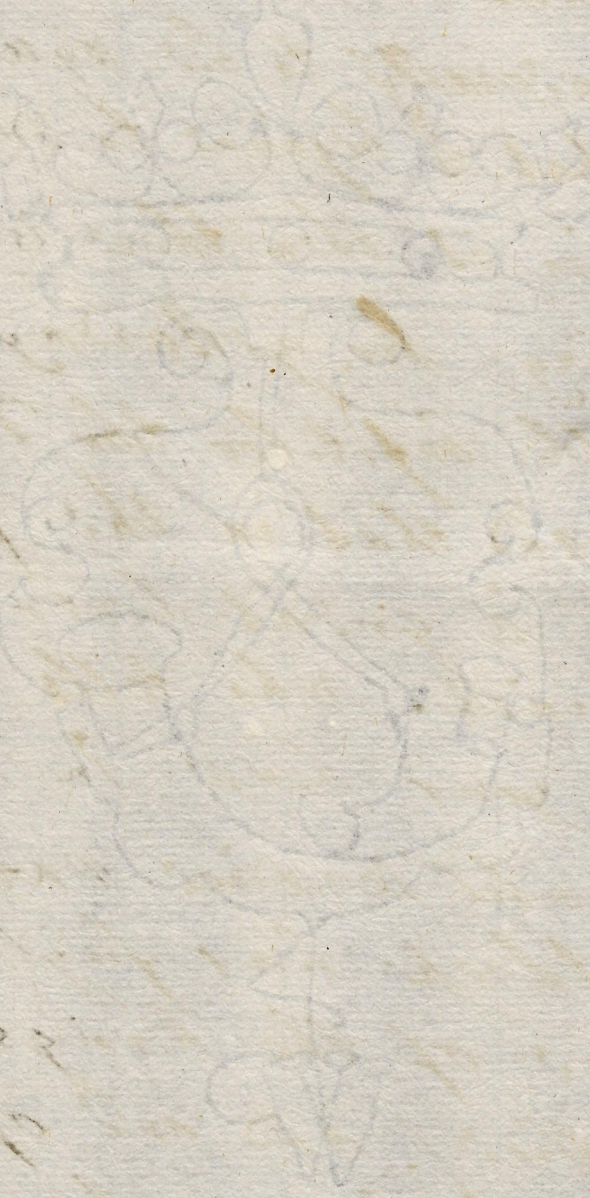

or I beseech you accept the most humble service of Aug. 37. Viridiana Swann

Your most humble and faithful servant
