

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Dutch, covering the majority of the page. The text is written in brown ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The handwriting is dense and somewhat slanted. There are several large, dark ink blotches or smudges scattered across the page, particularly in the upper and middle sections. The text appears to be a letter or a document, possibly related to the Huygens family as indicated by the stamp.

Handwritten text along the left edge of the page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.

Handwritten text in the center of the page, including the word "Groningen" and other illegible script.
