

By this inclosed of our friend Mon<sup>r</sup> Beers you may see I am not forgetfull of him, whom I have lett know how much hee is obliget unto you in remimbring and wishing him wan of that quyre of Musyck his H<sup>y</sup><sup>ty</sup> is now crilling, and to that end have desired him to lett mee know with all speed whether hee still was inclinid to change his condition to live amongst more reasonable creatures then now hee doth, especially in the knowledg<sup>e</sup> of his faculty, which if hee did, I doubt not but that upon his earnest suit w<sup>ch</sup> hee myght upon this occasion feele effectually your favour and inclination unto him; I doubt not Sir but hee will most gladly and speedily for that purpose make his addresses unto you and with all to lett you know more particular his presens condition there. Sir I doe here send an other inclosed to that end unto him to hasten his answer, the directing of which I leave unto you according to the postscript of his letter which is the sure direction I can give my wife presents her humble service to you and grieves much for the loss of her voice which a

Aug. 37.

great could has taken from her especially since shee hears of so rare a Frenchman that is come to you, but I hope ere long shee will be fitt againe to heare her part in musick with your consort. which I long to heare. as lykewise to assure you how much we are.

Altho
Sir.

Your most faithfull and humble servant.

W. Swann

Given this 29 of January 1647.

C. Monsieur

Monsieur De Vulekom Concellier & Secretaire de Son Altesse a la Haye.

