

57
Much Honored And Highly Esteemed Sir 74 my humble service rendered, I could not omit to give you Notice of the Receipt of 3. Exemplars namely 3 Books of your Excellent Composition.
I shall observe to Direct them according to your promise may be. one to Mr. Rowe, who is gone to Dertyn few Dayes since. the second, I send to Oldenborow, to the Harper, & Quiestion not but they'll be well Esteem'd. the third, I shall Retaine with thanks, and should in high esteem. For I can not forgoe to put you in minde of your last favourable Promise, in procuring of the Remainings of the 100 Rj. part of my wages Due unto mee, If it could be obtained it would be very welcome at this time of great scarcity at this Court, besides small hopes of some sudden reliefe. I hope you'll excuse this bold importunity, it is urgent Occasion that puts mee thus forward. In troubling you, I am Much Desirous to waite upon you at the Stage, specially the Prince of Wales being at Present there, to whom I might Present my service, In hopes of future favours from his hands, if hapely a peace might be concluded In England, I shall in-treat your counsel in this my Intention, and I shall observe your Direction therein, and Regulate my selfe Accordingly, Remaining with a thankfull minde and Heart your Most Tresumble and My wife Remembers her best Respects obedient servant unto your worthy selfe. Ditrich Stöcklin.

at Present time

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

A. Monsieur
Monsieur de Sullicum. Secre<sup>ta</sup>ire De son Altesse le Prince D<sup>uc</sup> Orange
A La Haye