

Handwritten text in Dutch, likely a letter or document, written in a cursive script. The text is mirrored across the page, suggesting bleed-through from the reverse side. The handwriting is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and the age of the document.

Handwritten text in Dutch, possibly a signature or a specific section of a document. The text is also mirrored across the page. It appears to be a name or a title, though the cursive makes it challenging to read.

Handwritten text in Dutch at the bottom right of the page, possibly a date or a reference number. The text is mirrored and includes some numbers and possibly a year.
