Most Honored and Highly Respected: my humble Service Being Remembred, I would not neglect, by this good opportunity to send some of the long promised Lyrical Lessons, which you may please to make use of at your good Leisure. I would have sent more, but the Time was too Short, I have Received the two books from her highnesses Groom of her Chamber, who also Intimated unto mee your Intention you had in the furthering, and Accomplishing the Business, which I left in trust with your Worthy Selfe, at my last departure from thence, the Land Rentmeister Mr. Knores no other wayes, but that I have Received it long since from your Hands, therefore will not Refuse to Rebatte it, Ser you will much Obliged your humble Servant, for this and Other favours Received at your Hands, and who heartely longs for the Reintoyning of your Worthy Compagny, and happy Society, which I shall with great Impatience Expect, and Wish for, In the meane time I shall not fayle to be Lyable to your Commands Remaining. Always And Ever

your Most humble
 and Tres Obedient Servant
