

R. Huygens
Jan. 1629

M. Huygens de Excellent. me Domine

Letter to the author of the Comptes de l'Académie des Sciences, Paris, concerning the publication of his work in the Acta Eruditorum. The letter discusses the author's reputation, the quality of his work, and the author's desire to have it published in Latin. It also mentions the author's travels and experiences in Batavia.

It is written in Latin and signed by the author.

It is dated January 1629.

The letter is addressed to the author of the Comptes de l'Académie des Sciences, Paris, concerning the publication of his work in the Acta Eruditorum. The letter discusses the author's reputation, the quality of his work, and the author's desire to have it published in Latin. It also mentions the author's travels and experiences in Batavia.

It is written in Latin and signed by the author.

It is dated January 1629.

Quid vero de scriptis suis divinisimis: quia de Poematis diversorum idiomaticis, quae etiam jacentis exististi; quiaq' Magos viros in stuporem poterant dare, et me, virginem telum amatorem, jam diu in TURK, antequam TE viderem, fecere? Sed de his alia forte vix communi: Hac votorum me nimman oblinuisse putabo, si tuo me favore cum plexi et in numerum choriūm Tuorum adsciscere dignabere, in hunc rei signum filii pro Tuum domen albo hinc mes inzeres, quod quicquid illo, tamquam sidere Paro, simo ne formosissimus magis conspicibilis superbius, præsentem cum panior adhuc (quæ dñs est infelicitas) omnium tuorum accipere potuerit, præter Prokunum illum, omni laude majorum, et van der Burghum, qui vel eo nomine inter optimos censendis (quamquam et alias vnde est Eximius) quod Tuas virtutes digne estimare et novit, et namquam desinit. Sed deinceps ego inconta hæc scriptio attioris Excell. Tuæ cogitationes impaire, quæ si ad colloquium ne suum admittent (quando per alias quidem occupationes commode id fieri poterit) non gravabitur, felicem me, TE vero, ut pole testis orationis, Virtutibz et Humanitate incomparabile prædicabo.

Vale, Via MAXIME, et novitas hinc, sed candido clienti fare, qui omnia 1180, quicunque possessorum capere potest, felicitatis incrementa, sibi vero commodam serio optat occasione, quæ regis queat ostendere, quid fiet is vere, quem nunc stylu se pro, fitet

Excellencie tua

Auric.
ad d. XXII. Decemb.
C. 10. 10. C. XLVIII.

Cultor et amator omni
studis deditissimus

Ioannes Ernestus Constantijnhuygens
Gd

billigemail:

billigorganisation:

billingsstatecode:

billingsreet:

billingsuite:

numberofpages:

object:

Revius-HUYGENS

range:

remarks:

shelfmark:

Processline:

BPL 885 Revius-HUYGENS

Ilustri & Excellentissimo domino
CONSTANTINO Huygenio
Equiti, Quicquidam, Dns, Cels. mo Principi Arantionensi ab intinoribus, & syls & Secretis, &

