

Heros Sulichone.

Da tibi depropriatū ad optime de meo studijsq, meo merito D<sup>n</sup> Jassens vicinū non ita pridem nostrū, in foederatō D<sup>n</sup> Ordini collegio assessoris, nihil minus quam p<sup>er</sup>darū, carmen; Sed et depropriandum, hinc officij id flagitante ratione, inde importunitate nuntij, quora phrag, gens, ex vs, quibus Duespiter dimidiū mentis ademit. Heros noster maritima in normam redegit, provincie voluit morationē yentū institutis, tacitā observantiā, in aeternam legem transmissis, valitura.
Dignus certe est cui Statuam. At enim, meo subitanea firmentis venae luxuriam compressant, neq, est immūne peccati multiloquiū. P<sup>er</sup> nostrū candorem rogo ego te quisq, esto censor; ut vel totū incumbat in spongia aut quodcumq, in illa volēs incumbere.

Tuus Solvurus
Graswinckel
12 feb. 1653 Haag.

Hug. 37.

[Faint, illegible handwriting in a historical script, likely Latin or Dutch, covering the upper half of the page.]

[Faint, illegible handwriting in a historical script, likely Latin or Dutch, located in the lower middle section of the page.]

Herói Lubekeno in humanissimas manus.

