no. ten. 1684

Copie.

I was at an end of my Books, and y<sup>r</sup>. Contrivance so troublesome at sea, that I could but now get a small quantity from France, where y<sup>r</sup>. see they are printed.
 By which will serve y<sup>r</sup>. y<sup>r</sup>. Note no Court by the delay. And yet, since y<sup>r</sup>. have desired to see these trifles, doe so much for the authors sake as to purchase them in passage. I am sure, whatsoever wanteth in the composition, will be supply'd by the execution, if y<sup>r</sup>. will vouchsafe to lend it y<sup>r</sup>. most excellent Royall Tirbe. or else if y<sup>r</sup>. will be so good to us one day, as to come on ere y<sup>r</sup>. may have my selfe Swaine and me make a reasonable Rau bruit about some lessons of this Booke. The Psalmes & the most beaut and doth use to sing are marked here in the margin, as also some of the songs. y<sup>r</sup>. shall take the pains to let me have y<sup>r</sup>. advice upon any one of them, if y<sup>r</sup>. will make me a leewe y<sup>r</sup>. looked them out, and hold me still to be, as I am.
