

R. 27. oct. 1658.

noble Sr
give me leave to chalenge your promises which was to favour my book and so me by it so much as to present it, to the university library of Layden for though my book hath neither witt nor worthe enough to deserve a place in that library yet by the honour that it will receive from your hands it may find a good acceptance thus Sr; trouble you but no man lives with out some troubles and those persons that are most eminent are most sollected to doe favours and your favour in this will ever oblige me

As be Sr your most humble servant

M. J. V. A.
