

A m Landt

Br D. 12. lat. 69, 23

Wolff

I was at Rotterdam when y^r excellent Poem. was brought to my lodging. If I had been at home, I would not have failed to return y^r instantly the Everis thanks I owe y^e for so worthy a present. When I shall have perused a ^{very} part of it, as indeed I shall have a mind to do wth as much attention as I see ^{the} ^{very} ^{one} ^{of} ^{them} ^{do} ^{it}.
I will be bold to acquaint y^e wth my ^{own} ^{opinion} ^{of} ^{the}
if a perpetual admiration, I am for ever, do not ~~but~~ make me an incompetent judge of works
so ^{far} beyond the reach of my capacity.
I will to have any to send y^e ^{by} ^{son} ^{light}
I have always admired y^r eminent virtues, and how much I am and will be ~~for~~ for ever.