

To the King, Writ, Surveyor,
31
Lond. 21. Dec. 1620.

19

The King hath been pleased to keep a Copie of this poor project,
and would doe me this morning
the Honour to commend it wth the Character of a Very good Paper.
If it ^{doe but seeme to pass} may but pass for half so good in y^r. liking, Sir, I will doe my paines ^{happily} double wth be bowed.
I pray y^e. to draw it; that we may have occasion to conferre about while I am here. It may be one time or other some reflexion
will be made upon the reasoning
of a simple author, What y^e.
I amble s. & am.