13 To the Lad.
Killigrew
W. 28 Oct. 1670.

Madam:

In mij laast pacquet upon W.ch I receaued y.r gracious answer. I forgot to joijne a Gigg belonging to one of the two sarabands. I sent y.r now and surprising this might serue for a diuersion of yours unpleasing and y.r Lad.p Lad.p no mind to make any mutation of those sad Lessons, Eldr I send it for a better releiuing of y.r languishing spirits. I am sorrij to Lave occasion to vse them so; and to doe as much as I am able to Help y.r out of that Humour, I am bold to send again w.th some nitre cerotes for y.r Herbs. Dare make vse of mij example as I consider Dare how fitt and necessarij a thing is Harmonij in time of anij trouble. I pray God to restore y.r to y.r full Health and both wherin I y.r W.th all prosperitie. rest[illegible] alwaijs

If y.r L.p will lett me Lave a Share in some of y.r intellectual M.r Aymont Earl Lirconi will take it for a Spirial favr. of the old ones I Lave was Rationally mis provided in frame.

For M.r Jam[illegible] I wonder not disapproue.
