

To the Lady
Effard. D.

is this now
again Lord
amb. van (Hind),

Madam;
If I may trust to the ~~friendly~~ relations of this new year ~~Landbouw~~ being a person of public faith y. Lad. Earl has pleased to send me word by Lin. y. con. resolution should be to honour me w. y. favourable ^{days} ~~all the time~~ of y.
Life. If I had the presumption, Madam, to promise y. with some ^{such} mutual assurance of ~~the~~ kind from my ^{hand} ~~side~~, first of all what a ^{poor} and contribution would it be ~~required~~ and then, how friendly and how slow a one from a Collier who by you to live ^{before a} ~~in~~ ^{quite} Elizabeth ^{days}! So Madame; ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~your~~ ^{side} so ever I do look upon my self I find nothing to my word ~~but~~ ^{but} ~~an~~ ^{an} ~~empty~~ ^{empty} ~~land~~ ^{land} ~~full~~ ^{full} of ~~empty~~ ^{empty} ~~thanks~~ ^{thanks} for ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~same~~ ^{same} ~~reason~~ ^{reason} of favour, w. ^{of} ~~being~~ ^{of} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~same~~ ^{same} ~~way~~ ^{way} y. Lad. Earl ^{at the same counting out}

 I^{ye} will also ~~perish~~ ^{perish} ~~with me~~ ^{in the same} manner, and suffer me by this occasion to send ^{Madam} ~~you~~ my most hearty wishes, towards the good journey you are undertaking. God almighty send you ^{his} ~~his~~ ^{his} blessings, All shall be in favour ~~of~~
 and to my delight, because I know you,

Madam.
