

To Decel. Thomas
Nov. 1. Nov. 1800.

Worshipful

Y<sup>e</sup> are not forso much out of my sight to escape my importunions. Hoping to see and hear Y<sup>e</sup> shortly here again, and that Y<sup>e</sup> will leave the good news to provide me of a few books I see Y<sup>e</sup> a non of d<sup>e</sup> Y<sup>e</sup> departing. I am grown so much the better as to add thro' 4 of 5 to the number. Equally driving that they may come out in Y<sup>e</sup> in around the same packe. Y<sup>e</sup> with all one, I? as the Example? did to be Cook's written not is it tam familiar? But let me put in mind how long I have been dying, nothing with be is prison for, less is, is non person, but is by the Y<sup>e</sup> power to cut of this trouble, if Y<sup>e</sup> will receive perfect in Earl's from which Y<sup>e</sup> cannot be free <sup>from the</sup> prison, if

Y<sup>e</sup> Most humble and aff<sup>r</sup> servant.

972.