

my dear

On Sunday evening soon after the first of the month of your letter to me about the memorial, due my dear friend your & attention to the great but we have not by your letter since you is a uniform Sunday, at for the first time since the week of the year after the first of the month in the month as we should expect to receive the first of your work in the month of the year

Yours 30 October 1670

John White

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Faint handwritten signature or name, possibly "G. H. V. de ..."]

Mijn Gede

Mijn Gede des Buitma

