

Mr. Juyens

Whereas, at my being last in those countries, I told his Excellency of a map of Brabant, made by y^e enemies; w^{ch}, hee much desired to see, and I promised; and not knowing any one that can better present it wth my services to his Ex^{ty}, I have here sent it you, and entreat that courtesy of you. And for my selfe; I intend (god willing) according to my promise to the Prince, to be ready to wait on him, at such times as the army marcheth into the field. For testings wthholdings to you, for your kindneses, I remaine affectionate loving friend to serve you.

W. Juyens.

London. Febru: the 14th. 1628. W. Juyens.

S

A. W. M. de Vries

Wouter Huygens, Secretaris
der van Oranjesche Prinses de Oranjesche

de Prinses

1671